Dated: 12th April, 2020

Dear Students,

In order to assist and reassure the student community towards any kind of stress or panic that may be caused during prevailing Corona Pandemic situation, a committee has been constituted by the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, MPUAT Prof. Narendra Singh Rathore. The committee is functional with an aim to address any such issue related to student's health, psychological aspects and well being through helpline numbers and dedicated email id.

You are all thus advised to please contact any of the following staff members on the given mobile numbers for seeking immediate guidance, relief or help on any of the issues pertaining to above mentioned conditions or queries –

1. Prof. Deepak Sharma, Student's Welfare Officer, MPUAT – 9414160221
2. Dr Gayatri Tiwari, Assoc. Prof & Head, CCAS, MPAUT – 9414234660
3. R. K. Sharma, Asstt. Prof. & ADSW, COA, Bhilwara - 9829321074

Apart from these contact numbers, students can also write their queries on the following email id as well – mpuathelpline@gmail.com.

Meanwhile, please continue to follow the Government and University advisories as being circulated to you by the respective Deans from time to time. Hope you and your family are keeping well and all your loved ones are also safe and sound. Nature has been so kind to all life and will retaliate only if meddled with. Let's hope we all emerge out of the current situation strongly and with good health.

Please also continue to check the information available on University website <https://www.mpuat.ac.in/singlePage.php?id=295&type=SP> related to COVID – 19, which is being regularly updated. Please take care of yourself by staying at home and be safe while you continue to cover the course content online and offline with the active support of the subject experts from the University.

Affectionately yours

(Prof. Deepak Sharma)
